CALL FOR NOMINATIONS BC HEALTH CARE AWARDS 2019

Presented by the Health Employers Association of BC, the BC Health Care Awards recognize excellence and innovation in BC's health care community.

Selected by an independent panel of community, academic and business leaders, awards are for projects that improve health care delivery, and professionals who provide outstanding care.

Award recipients will be announced at a gala awards luncheon on June 24, 2019 at the Fairmont Waterfront Hotel in Vancouver.

BC HEALTH CARE
AWARDS

Who is eligible?

Employees and contractors who work for or within an HEABC member organization. Visit Nominations rules & regulations online for further info.

- * Project-based awards must have taken place during the past two calendar years (2017 to present).
- * Health Care Hero nominations can be for a lifetime of achievement or for more recent successes.

Who can nominate?

Anyone, including patients, colleagues, managers or members of the public. Review the online How to submit a winning nomination guide for detailed information. Be thorough, but concise, and give specific examples of how the award criteria have been met, and health care practices or care have improved as a result.

CATEGORIES

Top Innovation

A project or best practice by one of BC's publicly funded health care employers that demonstrates innovative solutions.

Workplace Health Innovation

A project or best practice that makes use of leading practices and innovative thinking to improve workplace health and safety.

Collaborative Solutions

A joint project or best practice that harnesses the collective efforts of a joint team within the health system to generate positive outcomes.

Dianna Mah-Jones Award of Excellence in Person-Centred Care

A team or project that makes use of leading practices to improve care for patients, residents or clients by focusing on the needs of the person rather than the needs of the system or service.

Health Care Hero (s)

Characterized by the heart they put into their work, Health Care Heroes inspire those around them and make a difference by going above and beyond.
